

Co-sponsor and Support the Paycheck Fairness Act (S. 3772)

November 8, 2010

Dear Member of Congress:

On behalf of a broad coalition of organizations that promote economic opportunity for women and full enforcement of the antidiscrimination laws, we strongly urge you to move expeditiously to pass S. 3772, the Paycheck Fairness Act. A companion bill to the Paycheck Fairness Act was passed on a bipartisan basis by the House of Representatives on January 9, 2009.

Congress took an important step in passing the Lilly Ledbetter Fair Pay Act of 2009. That vital new law reverses the Supreme Court's decision in Ledbetter v. Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. and helps to ensure that individuals subjected to unlawful compensation discrimination are able to effectively assert their rights under the federal anti-discrimination laws. But the Lilly Ledbetter Fair Pay Act, critical as it is, is just one of many tools needed to address unfair wage disparities.

The Paycheck Fairness Act would deter wage discrimination by closing loopholes in the Equal Pay Act and barring retaliation against workers who disclose their wages. The bill updates and strengthens the Equal Pay Act of 1963 to ensure that it will provide effective protection against sex-based pay discrimination. Toward that end, the measure allows women to receive the same remedies for sex-based pay discrimination that are currently available to those subject to discrimination based on race and national origin. This comprehensive bill also provides for much needed training and technical assistance as well as data collection and research.

Ensuring that women receive equal pay for equal work is a critical component of any effort to stimulate the economy and to ensure self-sufficiency for them and their families. More than four decades after Congress outlawed wage discrimination based on sex, women continue to be paid, on average, only 77 cents for every dollar paid to men. This persistent wage gap can be addressed only if women and all other workers are armed with the tools necessary to challenge discrimination against them, and employers are provided with effective incentives and technical assistance to comply with the law. The Paycheck Fairness Act will help to better address the problem of wage discrimination and eliminate loopholes that have undermined the EPA's effectiveness.

It's time for the Senate to join the House and continue its efforts to make real progress on fair pay. We urge you to co-sponsor and work to swiftly pass the Paycheck Fairness Act. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Fatima Goss Graves, Vice President for Education and Employment at the National Women's Law Center (202/588-5180) or Lisa Maatz, Director of Public Policy and Government Relations at the American Association of University Women (202/785-7720).
