TIME'S™ LEGAL DEFENSE FUND UP

To the members of Alliance and Farmworker women across the country, we see you, we thank you, and we acknowledge the heavy weight of our common experience of being grieved, harmed, and exploited by those who abuse their power and threaten our physical and economic security. We have similarly suppressed the violence and diminishing harassment to fear that we will be ridiculed and blamed in the process of speaking out. We share your feelings of anger and shame. We harbor fear that no one will believe us, that we will lose work or that we will be dismissed, and we are terrified that we will be fired or never hired again in retaliation.

JANUARY 1, 2018 Dear Sisters,

We also recognize our privilege and the fact that we have access to numerous platforms to amplify our voices. Both of which have driven and driven widespread attention to the existence of this problem in our industry that farmworker women and countless individuals employed in other industries have not been afforded.

By every woman employed in agriculture who has had to fend off unwanted sexual advances from her boss, every housekeeper who industries where the lack of financial stability makes them vulnerable to high rates of gender-based violence and exploitation.

Unfortunately, too many centers of power — from legislators to Social Security to executive suits and management to academics — lack gender equity and women do not have equal decision-making authority. This systemic gender inequality and imbalance of power fosters an environment that is ripe for abuse and harassment against women. Therefore, we call for a significant increase of women in positions of leadership and power across industries. In addition, we seek equal representation, opportunities, benefits and pay for all women workers, not to mention greater representation of women of color, immigrant women, disabled women, and lesbian, bisexual, and transgender women, whose experiences in the workplace are often significantly worse than their white, cisgender, straight peers. The struggle for women to break in, to rise up the ranks and to simply be heard and acknowledged in male-dominated workplaces must end. Thank us on this responsible masculinity.

We are grateful to the many individuals — survivors and allies — who are speaking out and forcing the conversation about sexual harassment, sexual assault, and gender bias out of the shadows and into the spotlight. We fervently urge the media covering the discriminate by people in Hollywood to spend equal time on the myriad experiences of individuals working in less glamorous and retained trades.
