

NATIONAL WOMEN'S LAW CENTER

NWLC 2020 GALA A VIRTUAL CELEBRATION THE FUTURE WE DESERVE

THURSDAY, NOV. 12, 2020 • 7PM ET

THE FUTURE WE'RE FIGHTING FOR

The National Women's Law Center's annual gala brings together gender justice policy makers, influencers, and thought leaders working at the nexus of law, policy, and culture change.

In a year when our country continues to move through a pandemic and an economic crisis, address its racist past and present, and mourn the loss of so many, including icons of the social justice movement like Rep. John Lewis and Justice Ginsburg, what holds true is the value of coming together in community—even virtually.

With so much on the line for women in this country, especially women of color, we must leverage our collective power to achieve the future we deserve, the future we're fighting for.

Join us for this important night as we shine a light on the path forward.
