Form 990, Part III, Line 4a, Program Service Accomplishments: ruling that allows closely held corporations to deny women birth control coverage, by championing federal legislation to overturn the ruling, authoring amicus briefs in cases brought by dozens of employers trying to evade their responsibilities to provide contraceptive coverage, and activating tens of thousands of supporters to press for full contraceptive access. Worked with various state partners to block efforts to shut down women's health clinics and otherwise restrict abortion rights.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b, Program Service Accomplishments: learning in the federal spending bill for FY 2014, and otherwise worked to improve child care and early education through sustained leadership of the Strong Start for Children campaign and its nearly 400 organizational partners, organizing high-profile events, releasing reports, advising policymakers and mobilizing supporters. Documented and publicized the persistent overrepresentation of women in the low-wage workforce, its causes, and the public policies that would help to redress it in a widely disseminated report and a series of fact sheets, and engaged in advocacy efforts at the federal and state level designed to secure these policies.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c, Program Service Accomplishments: the rescission of a Peace Corps policy that terminated pregnant volunteers from service after the fourth month of pregnancy unless supervisors determined they would be able to serve effectively after the birth of a child-a determination not required to be made of new fathers; securing a new policy at a Missouri college permitting all pregnancy-related student absences to be excused, after filing a Title IX complaint with the Department of Education's Office for Civil Rights on behalf of a student; working with state advocates, to secure laws to ensure fair treatment of pregnant workers in three states. Secured the opening of over 33,000 positions in Army combat units to women by pressing the Armed Services to promptly implement the Defense Department's directive rescinding the direct ground combat exclusion policy for women, through meetings with Pentagon officials, marshalling Defense Department advisory committee support, and engaging the media and the public in the debate. Advanced efforts to combat sexual assault on college campuses and in the military by securing new federal guidance and, in the case of the military, new laws, to improve the policies, procedures, programs and enforcement of existing laws designed to prevent and respond to sexual assault. Spearheaded the effort to increase the number of women judges in federal courts by educating the public and policymakers on the importance of women in the judiciary, leading to an increase in the percentage of women judges actively serving on the U.S. Courts of Appeals to almost 35 percent.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11:

Explanation: The Center's Controller does the first review internally by matching all numbers to the financial statements and records, and checking all non-quantitative responses for accuracy before a second internal review is done by the Vice President - Finance & Administration and a third review by a Co-President. The Center's outside legal counsel then reviews the document. The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors thereafter reviews the document, and it is then provided to all members of the Board of Directors before it is filed.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

Explanation: Each year, members of the Board of Directors and key employees are required to complete a form disclosing any interests that may give rise to a conflict of interest. These forms are used to help determine issues on which potential conflicts might arise. In addition, as lawyers, the Co-Presidents are particularly sensitive to potential conflicts of interest and to avoiding even the appearance of a conflict by promptly discussing any potential conflicts with the relevant individuals.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

Explanation: An outside consultant is hired to analyze compensation of officers and key employees based on the most current national and

Washington, DC Area survey data on compensation comparability from the PRM

Consulting Management Compensation Report, Not-For-Profit Organizations.

The survey includes a wide range of organizations, and it gives results according to budget size that are highly correlated to compensation rates.

As part of the analysis, the outside consultant reviews the center's benefits for reasonableness and in comparison to other comparable organizations. The compensation information in the 990's of organizations similar to the Center is also reviewed for comparability. The two

Co-Presidents make recommendations to the compensation committee of the Board of Directors on what the compensation of key employees and other high level employees should be, based on the outside consultant's report, for approval by the compensation committee. The compensation committee also determines the compensation of the Co-Presidents, based on the outside
