Form 990, Part III, Line 4a, Program Service Accomplishments:

- The Fund provided support in cases that expanded state anti-discrimination laws to cover LGBTQ discrimination, rejected qualified immunity as a defense for police officers who arrested a survivor for allegedly making a false report of her sexual assault, and protected survivors who faced retaliation for speaking to the press about harassment and abuse.

- With financial support from the TIME'S UP Legal Defense Fund, a sex harassment case against the Chicago Fire Department was settled after three years of litigation for $1.8 million dollars.

- The Fund also provided support for a sex harassment case against the U.S. Navy, which was resolved through a settlement agreement that includes required training for supervisors about sex harassment, including harassment directed at nursing women.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b, Program Service Accomplishments:

- Produced monthly reports on women's unemployment rates and labor force participation rates that were heavily cited in the media and by policymakers, as well as deep dives into race and gender wage gaps in the context of the pandemic, laying the groundwork for the critical investments in caregiving infrastructure and family economic security. Our analyses demonstrated the impact of the pandemic and recession on women workers.

- Provided invited testimony to the House Committee on Education and Labor in support of the Paycheck Fairness Act, which would provide new protections against pay discrimination, and the Pregnant Workers

Fairness Act, which would ensure reasonable workplace accommodations for pregnant workers who need them; to the House Financial Services Committee on closing race and gender compensation gaps; and to the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission on the experience of workers with family caregiving responsibilities during the pandemic.

- Led advocacy that supported passage of the Pregnant Workers Fairness Act in the House in both the 117th and 118th Congress with overwhelming bipartisan support.

- Successfully advocated to the executive branch for an increase in the minimum wage for workers on federal contracts to $15 per hour with annual increases for inflation. The change benefits tipped workers on federal contracts to receive the full minimum wage, before tips, beginning in 2024, which will boost pay for more than 327,000 workers.

- Led the Stop Harassment State Network, providing partnership and technical assistance to state advocates seeking to address workplace harassment, leading to bill introductions and new protections in multiple states .

- Shaped and supported equal pay legislation in 12 states. Advocated for the successful passage of comprehensive equal pay legislation in Rhode Island; legislation banning employers from asking applicants for their salary and requiring employers to provide the salary range to job applicants in Nevada; and legislation requiring employers to provide salary ranges to job applicants and employees in Connecticut.

- Launched We, As Ourselves narrative campaign in collaboration with 'me too.' International and TIME'S UP to challenge and shift narratives about Black survivors of sexual violence.

- Published 100 School Districts: A Call to Action for School Districts Across the Country to Address Sexual Harassment Through Inclusive Policies and Practices with Girls for Gender Equity. This report and an accompanying toolkit for students to take action sets out a path for schools to take an innovative approach to prevent and address sexual violence.

- Won court ruling in Victim Rights Law Center v. DeVos, which vacated part of a harmful Title IX rule that weakened civil rights protections against sexual harassment in schools. The judge's decision in our lawsuit overturned the portion of the rule that prohibited schools addressing sexual harassment from considering police reports, medical records, and other written statements if the individual who created this written evidence was not cross-examined during a live hearing.

- Helped stop efforts in the final days of the previous administration to promulgate federal rules to weaken Title VI protections against racial discrimination, through advocacy with federal agencies and in the press.

- Published ". . . and they cared": How to Create Better, Safer Learning Environments for Girls of Color, which provides research, case studies, and recommendations toward addressing racial disparities in school discipline. Created in partnership with the Education Trust, the report provided actionable steps, grounded in student voices, supported by research, and accompanied by three case studies of jurisdictions that have adopted promising discipline practices.

- Provided practical support to clinicians facing discrimination because of their willingness to provide or support the provision of abortion.

- Provided technical assistance and support to state advocates working on the frontlines of defending the right to abortion and pursuing new policy measures to expand abortion access.

- Collaborated with coalition partners to ensure that major federal legislation-including the American Rescue Plan-did not include restrictions on abortion.

- Provided technical assistance and public education related to the introduction of the EACH Act, which would guarantee insurance coverage of abortion for those who get care or insurance through the federal government and prohibits political interference in the private insurance market's ability to cover abortion.

- Highlighted connections between abortion and equality, including in federal and state policy.

- In July 2020, filed a lawsuit against a harmful federal rule that specifically targets transgender individuals and people seeking abortion care. Co-counsel in the case are Hogan Lovells, the Transgender Law Center, Transgender Legal Defense and Education Fund and the Center for Health Law and Policy Innovation of Harvard Law School.

WOMEN'S LEGAL RIGHTS

Judicial Nominations That Promote Gender Justice

- Led campaign to ensure new administration prioritizes nominating women, particularly women of color, to the federal bench.

- Played a key role as the leading voice from the women's community in advocacy supporting the Equality Act, which would provide explicit protections against discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation and gender identity under federal civil rights laws and close longstanding gaps in protection against sex discrimination; the Equality Act passed the House with bipartisan support in February 2021.

- Doubled membership of the coalition to more than 225 national and state-based advocates, including many who had not previously engaged on judicial nominations, to galvanize partners against the Amy Coney Barrett nomination by sharing media highlights, topline updates, and coordinating calls to action.

- Established a new resource center, We Dissent: The Fight to #BlockBarrett and Protect Our Rights, featuring an analysis of Judge Amy Barrett's record, which included fact sheets on what's at stake for abortion, birth control, health care, education, and workers' rights; and blog posts on the threat to child care, women's economic security, sexual assault survivors, and LGBTQ people.

- Led advocacy to secure $50 billion in child care relief, the largest investment in history, and $46.5 billion in emergency rental assistance through two COVID relief bills
- Launched We Are the Backbone: Faces of the Childcare Nation, a narrative campaign to center Black and brown women in child care policy and advocacy. The campaign shifted narratives about child care as essential to the nation's economic recovery, and featured portraits of child care workers on bus shelters, billboards, and digital advertisements.
- Along with partners at Columbia University's Center on Poverty and Social Policy, released a major report, A Lifetime's Worth of Benefits, which examined and quantified the impact that "child care for all" could have on women's lifetime earnings and retirement security, underscoring how much women and families have to gain when child care is recognized and invested in as a public good.
