LEGAL NETWORK FOR GENDER EQUITY

NATIONAL WOMEN'S LAW CENTER FUND LLC

DISCLAIMERS

The Legal Network for Gender Equity and the TIME'S UP Legal Defense Fund are housed and administered by the National Women's Law Center Fund, LLC, an affiliate of the National Women's Law Center (NWLC). NWLC is a legal advocacy organization that fights for gender justice in the courts, in public policy, and in our society.

This directory has been prepared by NWLC staff for informational purposes only. The provision of this directory does not create an attorney-client relationship between any attorney at NWLC and the reader and does not constitute legal advice. Other than NWLC, NWLC's Legal Network for Gender Equity, and NWLC's TIME'S UP Legal Defense Fund, the organizations identified as potential resources in this directory ("the listed organizations") are wholly separate and independent from NWLC. NWLC cannot guarantee that the listed organizations will have the capacity to assist the reader, or that the organizations referenced in this directory will achieve any specific result or outcome, if they are contacted by the reader. Contacting the listed organizations does not create an attorney-client relationship with NWLC.

Please note that many legal matters have deadlines that you are responsible for meeting. Organizations and individuals are encouraged to contact a lawyer licensed in their jurisdiction for advice on their specific circumstances.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

We would like to thank Sky Sheppard, Danie Stewart, Malaika Simmons, Jennifer Lee, Michael Gadinis, and Andrea Sumner for their substantive contributions to and review and design of the resource directory, and for all that they have done and continue to do to further the work of the TIME'S UP Legal Defense Fund. We would also like to thank Jennifer Mondino, Liz Chacko, Lizzy Vogel, Nicole Morris, and all other National Women's Law Center staff who provided invaluable suggestions, review, and support for this project.

Building this resource directory would not have been possible without the contributions of all organizations listed. We thank every organization for engaging with us in this project and allowing us to share information about the work they do. If you are part of an organization and you would like to be included in future versions of this directory, please contact legalnetwork@nwlc.org.

DEAR READER,

The principal goal of the Legal Network for Gender Equity is to connect individuals facing sex harassment and other sex discrimination with legal help. While we believe in the importance and power of access to such legal help, we also recognize that survivors of gender-based violence and harassment, and other individuals facing sex discrimination, may also need forms of support that cannot be provided through our network. In reflecting on this, we decided to create a robust list of resources that might better address the broad range of needs, legal and non-legal, that are most often raised by individuals who reach out to the Legal Network.

We have organized this directory into the following categories of resources: mental health resources, LGBTQIA+ resources, gender-based violence survivor resources, immigration resources, military survivor resources, and disability rights resources. We included resources from each U.S. state because we know that sometimes local support is the most useful and we included some major national organizations that provide both direct services and more collective services and advocacy. We compiled this directory between Spring 2024 and Winter 2025. We have included only organizations that we were able to contact directly and that consented to being included in this directory. We acknowledge that, because of our process, some states have a greater variety or number of listed resources than others. We intend to periodically expand and refine this directory, with the intention of making it even more inclusive and equitable. To those of you turning to this directory for help with your own situations: we hope that this resource directory may ease your search for the support that you deserve.

I am human

""I AM HUMAN". These three simple words encapsulate our mission as an organization. Founded by a trans man of color, I Am Human was created to empower the lives of LGBTQIA individuals. Our goal is to create a safe space for individuals who are homeless, living with HIV, and trans youth, with a focus on those who experience discrimination due to their lifestyle or gender identity. We aim to break the barriers with regard to the societal disparities in education, employment, healthcare, and housing. Our group is driven by a commitment to ensure all trans and gender non-conforming people are treated fairly and protected from violence. We don't see race, religion, gender, or sexual orientation.....We see Human!!"

NAMI Seattle

"NAMI Seattle is the only organization in the Seattle area working specifically to fill the gaps in our local mental health system through peer-led education, referrals, and support. Originally established as "Washington Advocates for the Mentally Ill" in 1978, we worked with other concerned groups across the country to launch a national advocacy and support organization: The National Alliance on Mental Illness, or NAMI. Today, NAMI is the largest grassroots mental health organization in the nation."
